"If you don't know what that means, I suggest you keep reading. If you can't read, then you're probably in no position to view a scary movie." You and your friends have stumbled on an ancient civilization that has been dead for over a thousand years. You discover that the natives are using weapons of power far above and beyond anything you've seen before, and you need to avoid being cut to shreds by those weapons. Your mission is to avoid being killed by the native warsuits until you complete the only safe way out: open a communication to a craft that will take you away from here. But you will have to survive the craft's guardians. As you move forward you will meet new dangers as you learn how the civilization and its technology has evolved over the millennia. Soon you will face the last obstacle: a planet-sized weapon that will annihilate you and everything you know. And so begins the experience of exploring many exciting levels, fulfilling your quest for knowledge in ways that no amount of video games could ever hope to deliver. You will be tested in the hardest situations imaginable, and you will need to rely on your knowledge of the past to find your way out of danger. Are you ready? Let's begin. Storyline: The Objective: You and your friends have stumbled upon an ancient civilization that has been dead for more than 1000 years. But through the mystery you have stumbled into, this civilization is now in a race against time to take over the entire solar system. With the help of your trusty portal gun, you must now survive the training of the races of the planet who have evolved as they encountered the technologies of the dead civilization. You will be tested in dangerous situations that no human can survive, but you must reach your goal in order to clear your name and return home. The world is about to be destroyed. Gameplay: Precipice is quite a unique game. There are no set classes; you are only bound by your knowledge and your wits. There are four enemies that you must cope with, but it's the constant flow of technology that will make that possible. The

Al of the enemies is something you must learn about and adapt yourself to to survive the many obstacles that you will face. Even if you are only a rank 1 player, you will be able to

"The Trackworld series is a highly realistic, cutting edge shooter simulator where the computer takes on the role of the enemy. You are in a tank and you are the first to track the enemy's movements on a vast three dimensional map. You must try to destroy your tank and escape before the enemy can do the same to you. Just like in the real thing, you will have multiple types of vehicles with different weapons, each with their own strengths and weaknesses. The latest addition to the series is Trackworld 3, an advanced 3D physics-based simulation that lets you control two different vehicles simultaneously. You can also change vehicle components at will, so you can switch between one vehicle and another in a moment's notice. If you miss a shot, the enemy will not only hit the target, but can also blow up tanks along with all other objects on the way. Trackworld 3 allows you to play online with other players or against computer players. It also contains a demo version that will let you try out Trackworld 3 on your own PC. You can also go to Trackworld Community to check out the Trackworld community's great multiplayer potential. " (Q&A Details) - Automatic Launch: Q: Will TrackWorld 3 Auto Launch its software as well? What's new in Starry Moon Island Cannon War MP07:

- SOLD Note: All items are used by Odomo and are no longer available for purchase. This is the Happy Wedding costume worn by Renee Odomo in 1 Game of Thrones Season 6, Episode 8: THE CLASH OF KINGS | PART 1. This collab is also featured in a couple Odomo videos on her channel, so be sure to follow her on social media! This item should arrive packaged separate from her body suit and wig. This only includes the dress so make sure you check out her other costumes from 1 Game of Thrones Season 6, Episode 8: THE CLASH OF KINGS. [Images are in links below, separate from the outfit.] PLEASE READ Before purchasing ANY costume from here, please make sure that you check the size chart and fit for all of the costume components. There is a sizing chart for most costumes in my shop. The closest measurements to Renee Odomo are 35in shoulder, 34 waist, 33 hip, and 29in bust. If you feel that your costume size chart is significantly different to these measurements, then I kindly ask that you leave a note at checkout either confirming your measurements or to contact me for a custom listing. If you fit outside of the size chart for any of the costume parts, contact me in a note or PM to confirm that the size will work for you. Due to the style and detailing of the outfit, if you have an extended list of measurements ("I have a 34 waist but since I'm a size L I fit here") please do note in your note or PM. All costumes purchased from me require measurements. If you're ordering a custom listing, then we recommend that you choose the closest size you can from the size chart, choose up to size 10 and have the costume tailored to a size larger or smaller. ALL ORDERING PROCEDURES ARE PROUDLY MADE HERE IN THE USA WITH AN AMAZING TEAM! Due to the intricacy of the wedding gown, the dress almost needs to be ordered as a custom order. A large wedding dress can take up to 6-8 weeks to make with quality components, so please be aware of that! All dresses are made of fine quality ivory fabrics with lace and tulle trim. I always suggest hand embroidery to lace in an area that won't be seen when the dress is on. The
