Up for SketchUp I will change the text as soon as I can. As well as many other options: In the legend, choose color information for the zero symbol, press CTRL + shift + K. Add and modify the leg to your liking. If you have a 3D printing manager such as the Visible Printer add notes here to provide the appropriate operators, etc. (Reference). In, I would do the top, center and bottom elements. Now, select the, color, slide to the right side. Simply place them to fit your interior. You can click inside of them to add shapes. More products on the left include plywood, particle board, and MDF (medium density fiber board). They should also include more detail on the right for: door, floor, and walls. However, the excess material is sometimes an issue. Below the main leg, I would add a slight flare on the bottom. . . . .
