Rounding out today's sales would be Monster Hunter 3 Ultimate release which sold over 3.5 million units by the end of the fiscal year 2016-2017 financial period. A whopping figure no doubt but it must be acknowledged that Monster Hunter 3 Ultimate is a huge game with huge untapped potential but Capcom did right with this release and players and it's very likely that we'll see a number of expansions in the future, and Capcom has already started with Monster Hunter 4 Ultimate, coming out in a few weeks time on November 18th 2016. We'll be taking a look at some of these updates later on. There's also a number of Capcom arcade machine titles hitting the market today, with Marvel vs Capcom 2: New Age of Heroes and Street Fighter V being some of the biggest. Street Fighter V already sold over a million units in its first week of release and is already the best selling new fighting game on the market over the last two years. Both MVC2 NioH and SFV were released to very positive reviews, Street Fighter X Tekken is also a fighting game that has been in the works for a long time and finally made it, in a generic sense, who doesn't love a good fighter? Rounding out this month's sales for Arcade Hardware and Nintendo Switch are Metal Gear Solid V: The Phantom Pain which sold just under a million units in its first week, the arcade version of Dragon Quest IX which sold over 300 000 copies, the 3DS version of Tekken 7 which sold more than 75 000 units.
