Re-FC. I got it on 6/30/2019 but didn't write it down. Someday I'll have to do it on the GH3. I have two microphones, one for my video recording and one "for my studio", but they don't work properly. And I don't know what I'll do next. This time I got a Re-Box and now I have a second mic and it works great. But I feel like I'm really missing one mic, and I'm wondering which one. I've had other clients in the past, but it was all for other shoots like home videos and video reviews, not my own records.
